- Tonguing: Use crisp and accurate tonguing to articulate each note clearly. Practice different tonguing patterns to add variety and interest to your playing.
- Slurs: Slurs are used to connect notes smoothly. Hold your mouthpiece steady and gradually increase air pressure to achieve a seamless transition between notes.
- Dynamics: Vary the volume and intensity of your playing to create contrast and expressiveness. Use forte (loud) and piano (soft) markings to highlight different phrases and create a dynamic performance.
- Articulations: Articulations, such as staccato (short and detached) and tenuto (held longer), add character and interest to your playing. Experiment with different articulations to find the ones that best suit each carol.
