A Poetic Tapestry of Mythic Proportions

The Hyperboreal Pitt Poetry Series is not merely a series of poems; it is a living, breathing tapestry woven from the threads of imagination and myth. Ashley draws upon a vast reservoir of ancient lore, weaving together tales from Norse, Celtic, and Native American traditions. From the thunderous hammer of Thor to the enigmatic wisdom of the Green Man, each poem becomes a portal into a realm of mystery and wonder.

In "The Valkyrie's Song," Ashley summons the Valkyries, the fierce and majestic maidens of Norse mythology, to guide us through the ethereal battlefields of Valhalla. The poem's rhythm echoes the clash of steel on steel, while the imagery transports us to a realm where the lines between the mortal and the divine blur.
