Synopsis

Vulgar the Viking is a young Viking with a big dream: to win the Great Viking Talent Show. But there's just one problem: Vulgar is terrible at everything. He can't sing, he can't dance, and he can't even juggle. But Vulgar is not one to give up. He sets out on a quest to find a talent that he can win the show with.

Along the way, Vulgar meets a cast of hilarious characters, including a talking pig, a giant squid, and a grumpy old troll. Each character teaches Vulgar a new skill, but none of them seem to be quite right for the talent show.

Just when Vulgar is about to give up, he has a sudden epiphany. He realizes that his true talent is not singing, dancing, or juggling. His true talent is being himself.

Vulgar takes the stage at the Great Viking Talent Show and tells the audience about his journey to find his talent. The audience roars with laughter, and Vulgar wins the show.
